

REMARKS:

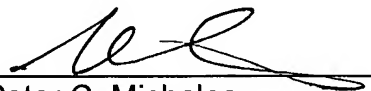

Claim1 is the only claim presented and has been indicated as being allowable if amended to overcome the Examiner's formal objections.

Claim 1 has been amended throughout to refer to the "protruded portions". To also better distinguish between the protruded portions of the stationary cam and those of the movable cam, the first are referred to as "first protruded portions" and the second set are referred to as "further protruded portions."

The other corrections have also been made to satisfy the Examiner's formal objections and the application and claim are now believed to be in condition for allowance.

Further favorable action is respectfully requested.

Respectfully submitted,

Peter C. Michalos
